Samepo Marani

The restaurant of Château Mukhrani, set in the estate's vaulted 19th-century royal wine cellar.

THE VENUE

About the Restaurant

Samepo Marani 1878, the Royal Cellar, is the restaurant of Château Mukhrani, the 19th-century estate of Prince Ivane Mukhranbatoni in the village of Mukhrani, about 30 km from Tbilisi. It is set in the estate's old brick-vaulted wine cellar, a historic monument, and the date in its name marks the year the first bottled Mukhrani wine was produced.

The menu combines traditional Georgian dishes with a European à la carte selection and recreations of dishes once served at the prince's table, each with an estate wine recommendation. Groups can combine the meal with a tour of the palace, the cellars and the vineyards, and for larger events the estate also has L'Orangerie for up to 400 seated guests, a Ballroom for up to 100 and garden venues for open-air receptions.
