

TBILISI · GEORGIAN CUISINE

Khanuma

A spacious Georgian restaurant with wood-beamed halls, a wine wall and lively evenings of music and dance.

THE VENUE

About the Restaurant

Khanuma is a spacious Georgian restaurant with wood-beamed halls, brick columns, crystal chandeliers and a long wine wall. The halls seat up to 160 guests indoors, and a tree-lined courtyard garden leads to the entrance.

The kitchen pairs regional dishes, such as Megrelian elarji, with Georgian classics. A separate room with one long table suits private groups, and evenings are lively: when the music starts, guests often join the dancing.
