About the Restaurant

Ninia's Garden occupies an old Tbilisi house on Uznadze Street, on the left bank of the Mtkvari. It is run by chef Meriko Gubeladze, who also created Shavi Lomi, and takes its name from Ninia Zaridze, a local merchant who opened her garden to the city's young couples.

The kitchen serves Georgian classics with a modern touch and Middle Eastern accents. Groups dine in a glass-roofed hall hung with paper lanterns or, in the warm months, in the courtyard garden with its fountain and evening lights. Long tables can be set for welcome and farewell dinners.
